Respected Sir

When I was favoured with a personal interview in the early part of June 1914 you were pleased to ask me to put in an application for a post in the Geological Department. On the 11th of last month I was given to understand, that my application will be considered, if the Scheme a Natural Science graduate in the Education Department where he would be asked to teach English or some other subject with which he had severed all connection during the latter part of his university career. I humbly beg of you Sir, to give me sufficient encouragement to improve the knowledge partially gained till now.

Honours Graduates, I was told, were offered in the Education Department a Starting Salary of Rs 75 - 10/1 - 125, which it appears may [illegible] with thanks. Recently there was an advertisement inviting applications from Botany Hon. graduates or M.A's for the post of an Asst. professorship carrying a Salary of 150 - 25/1 - 250.

You were my Examiner Sir, and you are not unaware of the Standard of the B.A. Hon. Degree Examination. I humbly pray you Sir to entertain me in the Department and I fully trust in your generosity so far as the Starting Salary is concerned.

I beg to remain,
Sir,

May it please your Excellency,

Sir,

I humbly crave permission to bring to your ..... Excellency that when I had been favoured with a personal interview, on the 29th of May, soliciting an employment in the Geological Department, your Excellency kindly asked me to put in an application to the Government. Later on the 9th of July, when I paid my humble respects, your Excellency was pleased to observe that I had to wait till the reorganisation of the Geological Dept. and to tender my application at that time.

It is with the utmost regret, I venture to bring my name now before your Excellency, when your attention is drawn to too many problems which require simultaneous solutions. Sir, unfortunately I cannot afford to utilise a better opportunity than what I have got now, and I humbly crave leave to bring to your kind notice that not a single day has passed which I can fruitfully point out as having been turned to some useful purpose, ever since I passed the Honours Degree Examination.

3 (1) Please see the enclosed papers relating to petition of Mr. B. Rama Rao for an appointment in the Department which was referred to me for disposal.

(2.) I have not been able to do any thing as we had no posts available.

(3.) The applicant has been hanging on for several months and would like to apply for one of the new scholarships, but it will take a couple of months before we can advertise and finally settle about these.

4. I am inclined to view his recommendation with favour as the applicant has passed the B.A. Degree examn in Geology with honours.

5. He will have to take his chances with others in the Competition examination.

6. Please consult the Fin. Dept & circulate to Council.

It is doubtful if Govt would undertake to pay any allowance for the reasons given. Even if anything is given temporarily it should be only a subsistence allowance of about 20 or 25 Rs p.m. The source from which the proposed Emp^t may be met regarding which a remark is required is not mentioned.

(5 (1)) I submit herewith a file in which it is recommended by the Director of Mines and Geology that pending the selection of suitable candidates for appointment in the Geological Department in accordance with the Government Order reorganizing that Department, a scholarship of Rs 70/- per mensem may be given to one of the eligible candidates, viz., Mr. B. Rama Rao,B.A. (Honours).

Paper under disposal.

(2) The First Member of Council is agreeable to the grant of a subsistence allowance of Rs 30 though he thinks that such grants are irregular. The Extraordinary Member agrees with him and the Second Member has no objection if it has been usual to grant such scholarships in other technical departments.

(3.) I agree with the First Member and solicit His Highness' sanction to the grant, as a special case, of an allowance of Rs 30 per mensem to the candidate recommended till he is able to appear for the prescribed examination. The grant of the allowance will not in any way create a claim in favour of the candidate for any of the new appointments.
